A Member of the State Bar)

I, Frank Epstein, respond as follows:

COUNT ONE

Case no. 04-O-14278

I did not willfully and recklessly not file Mr. Kearney s final judgment. I admit that I did not timely file Mr. Kearney s final divorce documents. Various judgment were submitted to the court and were rejected and correction made. I have handled many divorces since being admitted to practice in 1981, and this is the only complaint that has been filed against me with regard to not completing a divorce.

2 CASE NO. 07-O-14079
3 Business and Professional Code, section 6068 (1)
4 Failure to comply with Agreement in lieu of Discipline

5 STATE BAR ETHICS SCHOOL

6 With regard to not complying with taking a course State Bar Ethics Course, I
7 did not wilfully not take the course. Over the course of the last year I was in a
8 state of denial and didn't do what I knew I was supposed to do. And regardless
9 of the outcome of this proceeding, I intend to take such course for I know it
10 would be beneficial to me as a lawyer.

11
12 MCLE

13 With regard to not taking an on-line office management course, I did not
14 wilfully not take such course. I intend to take such course and complete it prior 15 to our scheduled settlement conference date.

16
17 Respectfully submitted,
